Served with twin brother Jacob and younger brother Peter when drafted in March 1780. Served 18 mo as Indian scout and spy under Capt. Jonathan Coburn, Maj. Lowther. Pension #8,5294. Virginia no. 16, 247. Additional information- The 18 month tour of duty was in defense of 'west waters' a term referring to the Ohio river and its tributaries. While with Coburn they descended the Monongahela in what is now Ohio and West Virginia. During the wintery they hunted to supply meat for the troops. In Spring 1771 (81?) Coburn's group left Neals Station, now Parkersburg to defend that point and scout the Ohio river. When their draft expired they were discharged but asked to volunteer for an additional year of duty to which mos of them did including the Bonnett brothers. In Oct 1772 (82?) they were discharged for the second time but were again ordered out as Indian spies and continued serving in this capacity until 1794.
