

Carolyn DeLay
606 Maple Street
Atlantic, IA, 50022
727-510-8810
cdelay\_68164@yahoo.com

Member of:
Cass County Genealogy Society
ISDAR State Volunteer Genealogy Committee
Chairman
North Central Division Vice Chairman -
Membership

Available programs, in person or via Zoom

1. Genealogy 101-how to get started in research.
2. Reading those unreadable headstones, including symbols and foreign terms.
3. Documenting Graves with Iowa Gravestones and findagrave.com
4. I Can see Clearly Now, Cleaning and Photographing Gravestones
5. Jeremiah Hatch, A Revolutionary Soldier-story of the only know Revolutionary soldier buried in Pottawattamie County and his migration West with the Mormons.
6. Iowa's 4th Infantry and Sherman's March to the Sea
7. Doing Research in today's World with What You Have-Tips for doing research. Basic tips for general research and getting started.
8. So, you want to join the DAR. What you need to do to get started, and what is required.
9. Amelia Jenks Bloomer, Iowa's suffragette in Council Bluffs. A character presentation of her life.
10. Women Suffrage a Timeline and a Life. 1. Timeline of the fight to enfranchise women's right to vote. 2. It's implication for women in genealogy.
11. A New View of an Old Home. The history of the Iowa Veterans Home from its inception to the present day.
12. Betsy Ross- a character presentation of the life of Betsy Ross.
13. National Archives-a brief introduction to the various departments of NARA.
14. Doing Research in today's world with what you have.
15. Atlantic, Iowa-the first House and Beginning times
16. Glorecords-the ins and outs of land records
17. Sources -What they are and how to cite them